LANSING (AP) — Michigan's formal application for Federal Aid to Dependent Children of the Unemployed was in the mail today to the Chicago office of the Federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

"Unless something has changed in Washington, we don't expect it to be approved," admitted Lynn Kellogg, acting director of the State Department of Social Welfare.

The Michigan plan will probably be forwarded from the Chicago regional office to Washington for a decision, Kellogg said.

Gov. George Romney signed the Michigan ADC-U bill last week although Anthony J. Celebrezze, head of the department, declared it was illegal.

The federal agency maintained provisions of the Michigan plan are "discriminatory" because the aid would be given only to children of parents eligible for jobless benefits. Children of all unemployed should be eligible, the federal agency said.

Romney contended the states themselves, and not a federal agency, should determine the standards for eligibility.

Kellogg said if the Michigan plan is rejected, a formal hearing probably will be requested. Should the hearing produce the same rejection, court or congressional action would be possible, he said.

Kellogg recalled that Congressional action backed Michigan's position in a battle with the same federal agency a few years ago. Michigan's rule that a home must be suitable to qualify for aid to dependent children was upheld, he said.

Negro Registration Drive Continues In Greenwood, Miss.

GREENWOOD, Miss. (AP) — A federal judge has rejected a Justice Department request for an immediate court order barring interference with Negro vote registration efforts.

But U.S. Dist. Judge Claude F. Clayton of Tupelo plans a hearing on the matter Thursday at Greenwood, Miss.

Meanwhile, Negro comic Dick Gregory—who flew here to speak at a vote registration rally—said he would join members of his race going to the Leflore County courthouse today to take registration tests.

This city of 22,000, in the heart of Mississippi's cotton-growing area, has been stirred by racial unrest. Negroes, who outnumber white persons nearly 2-1, have spurred a vote registration drive. Of Leflore County's 6,400 registered voters, only 47, are Negroes.

British Laborite Gives His Views To Kennedy Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harold Wilson, Britain's Labor party leader, calls on President Kennedy today to tell him what the United States can expect from the United Kingdom if his party wins the next general elections.

Whatever the Briton will say cannot surprise the President. Since his arrival Saturday Wilson has had a series of conferences with Kennedy's top aides and has addressed the National Press Club.

However controversial some of Wilson's other views sound—such as his suggestion to recognize the East German Communist regime, or to accept as a fait the present German-Polish boundary—he may find a sympathetic listener in Kennedy when he explains his position on conventional versus nuclear weapons.

Wilson strongly believes that (1) Britain should beef up its conventional forces under the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, and (2) that the Conservative government's ambition to have an independent nuclear force is unnecessary.

The two questions are closely linked, Wilson maintains, as Britain could afford to strengthen its conventional forces only if it gave up its nuclear dreams.

The Labor party would favor, Wilson has said, putting more emphasis on conventional military strength—particularly within NATO—and de-emphasizing the idea of an independent nuclear deterrent force.

These views go along with Washington's.

The U.S. policy is that there is no need for separate atomic forces because the U.S. force is big enough to deter an attack. The United States also feels that Great Britain could make a bigger contribution to NATO's conventional arms strength.

House Attempts To Save 58 Bills; Deadline Tonight

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's House of Representatives had until midnight tonight to take action on 58 bills that almost died last week but were revived — with a struggle — Monday night.

The struggle came in the Senate, where a House resolution to extend the deadline for passage of bills squeaked through 16-15, with five Republicans joining Democrats in opposing the measure.

The measure allowed the House to bypass a legislative schedule drawn up in January calling for passage of all bills in their house of origin before April 1 — with appropriations and tax measures to have been passed by March 29, and all others by March 27.

Work Gets Behind
The March 27 deadline went by with 65 bills still under consideration. After the resolution passed, the House approved seven of them.

Some Republican leaders in the Senate argued for the resolution on the basis that the House, with a much larger membership and many more bills up for consideration, needed a longer time than the Senate for passage of bills.

Sen. Haskell Nichols, R-Jackson, supported the measure, saying the Senate "might be sorry" if it did not allow the House to consider the bills.

Sen. Raymond Dzendzel, D-Detroit, asserted in opposing the resolution that the Republican leadership "wanted a compact session and got it" — but now one extension of the deadline would lead to another.

As the debate was ending, Republican Senator Harry Litwisch of Benton Harbor said "let's retain our dignity" and oppose the resolution.

Described As "Mess"
Litwisch contended that lobbyists, looking for passage of relatively minor bills, were the chief supporters of the resolution.

Dictator Vows To Oust Reds From Guatemala

GUATEMALA CITY, Guatemala (AP)—Vowing to fight communism "to the death," Guatemala's new dictator, Col. Enrique Peralta announced Monday night he will deport all Communists in the country and let no others enter.

The provisional president told a news conference Guatemala is calm following Sunday's military coup. But the Defense Ministry charged Communist agitators are planning disorders.

Communist demonstrations were banned, but a mass rally was planned today to register public approval for Peralta, 54, an army officer and former diplomat who seized power with the avowed purpose of cracking down on Communist subversion.

Most political parties in this Central American nation approved the coup, although Miguel Ydigoras Fuentes, the elected president if he deposted, was a militant anti-Communist and a conservative.

Alberto Herrate Gonzalez, the new foreign minister, expressed hope for prompt recognition by all members of the Organization of American States.

The request presented a problem for the United States and those of Guatemala's anti-Communist allies in South America who feel freely elected governments are the best defense against communism.

Boy, 16, May Be Tried For Killing

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A juvenile court hearing was expected to determine today whether a 16-year-old Grand Rapids boy will be tried as an adult on a charge of brutally slaying a 12-year-old girl with an iron pipe.

Police said the boy confessed, and then denied several times, Monday the rape-slaying of Mary Constance Alfred and an attack on her sister Sherill, 8, in their bedrooms in their Grand Rapids home last Friday.

He was placed in custody of Juvenile Court.

Inspector Walter Gilbert said police are still checking other tips "to be on the safe side." Detective Joseph Zemaitis said the boy told him, "I went to rob the place and grabbed an iron pipe."

A piece of pipe, which a woman found in her car a block from the Alfred home a few hours after the attack "may be the slaying weapon," Gilbert said. It has been sent to the State Police Crime laboratory to check for possible blood stains.

Described as "a prime suspect," the youth came under suspicion when he volunteered information. He may have been trying to establish an excuse for being in the neighborhood, police said.

Police said at first he said a running man "brushed against" him while he was outside the Alfred home. Later he was quoted as saying he had been watching the home.

Detroit Has Good Chance To Land Olympics In 1968

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP) —Only four cities have applied for the 1968 Olympic Games, and the United States entry, Detroit, appears to have an excellent chance. The other three are Lyons, France, Mexico City and Buenos Aires.

Monday was the deadline for filing applications, and among the surprises was the fact that Vienna did not enter a bid.

The executive commission of the IOC and the International Sports Federations meet here June 6 to review the applications for the 1968 games.

Railroads Ready To Start Cutting Trainmen Jobs

CHICAGO (AP) — The nation's railroads geared today to put into effect sweeping rules changes—upheld by the U.S. Supreme Court—which eventually will eliminate 65,000 jobs.

A Supreme Court Clerk mailed in Washington Monday a mandate upholding the right of the railroads to make the changes and eliminate what they call feather-beds.

Delivery of the mandate to the U.S. District Court in Chicago will wipe out that court's injunction which has prevented the carriers from moving ahead with the job changes.

U.S. Dist. Judge Joseph Sam Perry called a meeting of lawyers representing management and the five operating unions today.

James E. Wolfe, chairman of the National Railway Labor Conference and chief rail negotiator, has said the schedule of changes will be published as soon as the injunction is dissolved.

Five unions, representing some 200,000 men who man the nation's trains, are ready to call a strike whenever the railroads begin cutting jobs.

President Kennedy also is ready to act. He is prepared to invoke emergency procedures of the Railway Labor Act, providing 30 days for a presidential board to recommend a settlement formula and 30 more days for additional negotiations.

Flood Recedes At Ontonagon

ONTONAGON (AP) — Flood waters receded slightly after the Ontonagon River spilled over its banks into the main street of this western Lake Superior community Monday.

As much as two feet of water covered River St. as melting snow and an ice jam at its mouth swelled the river. The river flows into Lake Superior.

Traffic had to be rerouted when water covered M 46 on the western edge of this town of 2,300.

Merchants in a two-block stretch of River St. had to remove stock from their lower shelves, and homes in a two-block stretch behind the business district had flooded basements.

Armed Cuban Exile Boat Confiscated At Miami

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—U.S. customs agents confiscated a Cuban exile boat, British police captured a band of 17 sea raiders and a companion group of commandos continued toward Cuba in a series of lightning-like developments.

The exile boat, captured in Miami, was "outfitted for aggression" supervising customs agent Joseph Fortier announced Monday night.

He said the 40-foot yacht Alisan was seized Sunday night at North Miami Beach with two homemade bombs and a 20-millimeter cannon on board.

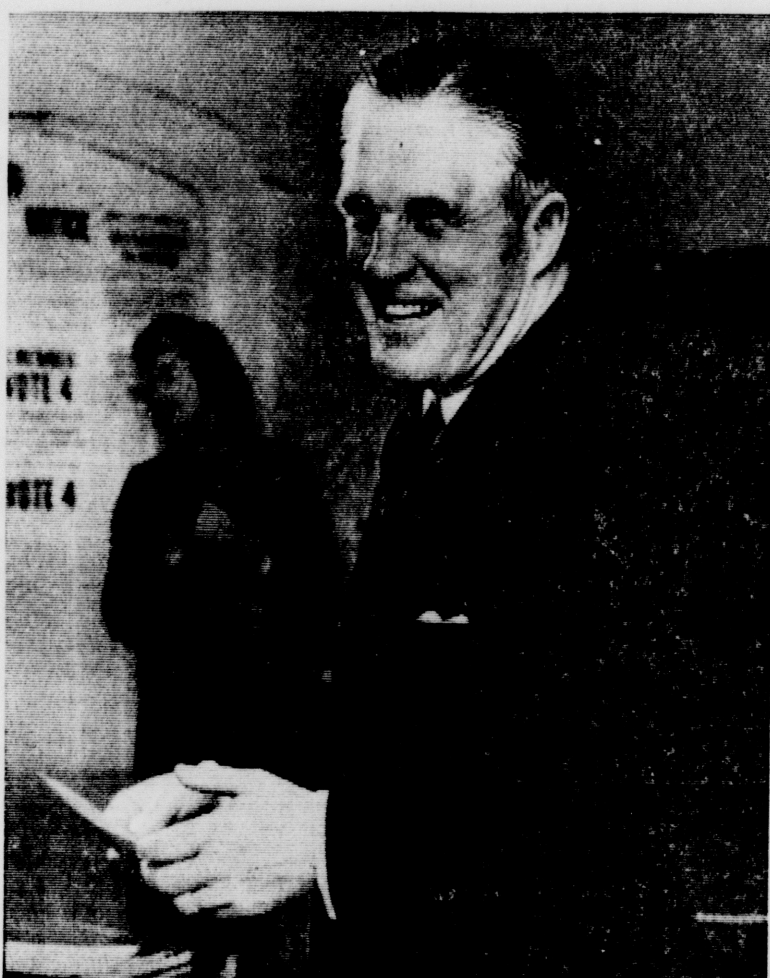

The boat's owner, Dr. Santiago Alvarez said he did not know who had been using the boat or where it was used. No charges were filed. Fortier said the boat was empty when agents boarded it.

A group of commandos was reported nearing Cuba by boat on a mission to fight any Communist boats encountered and to contact rebels inside Cuba.

A companion boat with 17 men aboard was halted at Norman's Cay, a tiny island in the Exuma chain 200 miles north of the Cuban coast and 350 miles south of Miami.

British police took the men into custody, including an American adventurer, Jerry Buchanan, 24, of Miami. Buchanan was flown to Nassau where he said the British would release the men and return their equipment.

Buchanan told his brother, James Buchanan, a reporter for the Pompano Beach Sun Sentinel, by telephone, that he and his companions would be put aboard

Gov. George Romney, pictured at his suburban Bloomfield Hills polling place Monday, declared today that "all people of Michigan can be thankful a revised constitution has been adopted." ## Ballot Victory Boosts Prestige Of Gov. Romney

DETROIT (AP)—A record turnout of voters adopted a new constitution for Michigan Monday and gave Republic Gov. George Romney his first vote of confidence in office.

Democrats, however, also had something to cheer about—capture of at least five of eight educational posts and two so-called "non-partisan" seats on the State Supreme Court bench.

Some 1.6 million voters flocked to the polls for Michigan's last spring election. Under the revised constitution, such elections will no longer be held.

Romney, Michigan's first GOP governor in 14 years and a dark-horse for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination, had staked his leadership prestige on adoption of the new constitution, which he helped write as a delegate to the Constitutional Convention last year.

Democrats Elect Justices
The former automaker also had campaigned in behalf of candidates on the GOP ticket.

Democratic leaders, though unhappy about approval of the new constitution, proudly pointed to their victory in at least five educational races and to the election of two Democratic-nominated justices of the Supreme Court.

The election of incumbent Justice Eugene Black, 60, of Port Huron, and former Justice Paul Adams, 54, of Sault Ste. Marie, swung the balance of the court from a 4-4 split to 5-3 in favor of candidates nominated by the Democratic State Convention.

One of the court seats will be vacated by the impending retirement of Chief Justice Leland Carr, a Republican.

Here is the way the other races went:

Democrat Lynn Bartlett, 58, of Grosse Pointe Woods, was re-elected superintendent of public instruction over Republican Raymond Hatch, 52, of Okemos.

O'Neill On State Board
Republican James O'Neill, 58, of Livonia, defeated Gerald Tuchow, 33, of Detroit, for state board of education.

For University of Michigan Regents—Democratic incumbents Eugene Power, 47, Ann Arbor, and Republican William Cudlip, 58, of Grosse Pointe Shores, were apparent winners over Democrat Donald Thurber, 44, of Grosse Pointe, and Ink White, 49, St. Johns.

For Michigan State University Trustees—Democrat Don Stevens, 48, of Okemos, and Republican Stephen Nisbet, 67, of Fremont, polled more votes than incumbent Democrat Jan Vanderploeg, 62, of North Muskegon, and Republican Arthur Rouse, 51, of Boyne City. Governors — Democrat Leonard Woodcock, 51, of Grosse Pointe, and Republican Alfred Whittaker, 68, of Grosse Pointe, led the ticket ahead of Democrat Michael Ference Jr., of Dearborn, and Republican Marshall Noecker, 49, of Grosse Pointe.

Adoption of the constitution was by a close margin of little more than 10,000 votes.

Romney issued a cautious victory statement at 3:30 a.m. in which he described the outcome of the constitution issue as a citizens' victory.

"In no sense can it be considered a victory for one party or one group of a few persons."

"If the apparent margin holds through the official canvass, all the people of Michigan can be thankful a revised constitution has been adopted."

Romney said the constitution was needed to strengthen all three branches of government—executive, legislative and judicial.

Changes in the finance and taxation provisions, he said, would guarantee Michigan would never again be forced to have "payless paydays" for state employees such as developed in 1959 when the state ran out of money to pay its bills.

Agencies Confusing
Since taking office, Romney frequently has criticized what he found to be a lack of authority to go along with the responsibilities of the governorship.

"I don't think people recognize

One Township Has Supervisor Change

In three contests for the office of supervisor in township elections two incumbents were re-elected to office and a third defeated his opponent for the vacancy created in Maple Ridge Township when Walter Mannie retired.

Joseph Goodman of Brampton Township, incumbent, defeated a slip candidate, Kenneth Besson, by a vote of 149 to 72; Edwin Bergman of Bark River Township polled 263 votes over his opponent, Fred Gasparik, who received 190; and John Norman of Maple Ridge Township defeated his opponent, Jack Kleiber, by a vote of 214 to 164.

Voters in Bark River Township voted against authorizing the Town Board to sell the Community Building. The vote was 197 for and 247 against.

There were only two other contests on the township ballots. Clarence Nordquist, incumbent, defeated Alice Mroczkowski, a slip candidate for the office of township clerk in Ford River Township by a vote of 256 to 149; and Gerald Bazinet, incumbent, defeated his opponent, Paul Johnson, for the office of constable in Maple Ridge Township by a vote of 181 to 166.

Members of the Escanaba High School Class of 1923 will meet in the office of Charles Folio, University of Michigan extension, at the State Office Building at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, April 3, to make plans for a 40th anniversary class reunion.

The reunion, including a dinner and celebration, will be held at the Dells Supper Club on July 1. Members of the Class of 1923 are invited to attend the Wednesday evening planning meeting or to address inquiries to Folio in Escanaba and to Hubert Bray in Gladstone.

Of the nearly 600 princely realms existing when British rule ended in India in 1947, none today retains its identity as a separate state.

UPCAP Puts Air Photos Of Forest At Top For Jobs

By JEAN WORTH

Top priority in planning for economic development in the Upper Peninsula has been given to an aerial survey of U. P. forests and the Area Redevelopment Administration has promised a decision within a month on an application for a grant of $50,000 to finance the work.

The aerial photography project was one of several reported at the meeting of the Upper Peninsula Committee on Area Problems in Iron River Saturday by Robert Nathan Associates, economic counseling firm retained by ARA to help UPCAP with technical assistance.

A second project in the forest category of UPCAP's program is a survey now being conducted by questionnaires to determine the forest resources of the Upper Peninsula county by county.

"UPCAP asked ARA for funds to accelerate the aerial mapping by flights in the western Upper Peninsula in 1963, except in Baraga County, mapped in 1962, the Ottawa National Forest and Isle Royale. The counties to be covered and the years in which they had their most recent aerial photographs are: Keweenaw and Houghton, 1954; Ontonagon, 1954-60; Gogebic, 1960; Iron, 1955; Marquette, Dickinson and Menominee, 1954.

Data Is Dated

The eastern Upper Peninsula counties to be photographed in 1964, and the years of their most recent aerial photography are: Delta and Alger, 1954; Schoolcraft, Luce, Mackinac and Chippewa, 1953.

Dates of the most recent forest statistics vary from 1946 in Marquette to 1956 in Delta, Alger, Schoolcraft and Menominee. Dickinson and Iron's dates from 1948.

The technical assistance project application to ARA cites the importance of forest industry to the Upper Peninsula. "Marquette County has 95 per cent of its 1,178,248 acres in forest lands and a need for wood industries. 'The forest resource is a major factor in Chippewa County with 80 per cent of the county, of 850,000 acres forested.' 'A prime opportunity for accelerating economic growth lies in the field of forest products in Schoolcraft County.' One could take similar statements from all 15 county Overall Economic Development Plans," ARA was told.

"A heavily forested region of 10.6 million acres, the Upper Peninsula never did experience much development for agriculture. It was handicapped too greatly by a shortage of good farming soils, by relatively short growing seasons, and by long distances to the centers of population and markets. Economic developments awaited discovery of rich deposits of copper and iron. Lumbering also brought a boom to the Upper Peninsula. When mining and lumbering flourished the Upper Peninsula's economy flourished.

Need Resource Use

"The problem is to achieve fuller utilization of the abundant and growing timber resources in order to increase economic activity, provide more jobs and assist in the rehabilitation of the timber resource by providing markets for the products of timber stands in need of cutting. For the greatest benefit to Upper Peninsula residents, fuller utilization should be brought about by establishing greater wood-processing plant capacity in the area.

"One of the most formidable obstacles to interesting venture capital has been the lack of current information on timber volumes, growth, and desirable cut. Some of the forest resource figures available are as much as 17 years old.

"With the rapid changes taking place in the Upper Peninsula's largely second growth forests, estimates of this vintage are obsolete. Every year many inquiries are receiving concerning opportunities for new wood-using plants. Without adequate timber resource estimates, particularly projections of volume and growth over the ordinary liquidation period of new plant investment, very few of these inquiries have resulted in action.

New Studies

"The Lake States Forest Experiment Station of the U. S. Forest Service plans to begin a new forest inventory in the Upper Peninsula early in 1964. But unless new aerial photography is available, this will have to be a generalized survey which will not provide the reliable timber estimates by individual counties needed to plan for industrial development. Except for Baraga County and the Ottawa Forest, existing photographs are too old to show current forest conditions.

"No state or other agency is planning new aerial photography, except for the Hiawatha National Forest. The remainder of the Upper Peninsula will not be rephotographed soon unless this project is approved."

If ARA provides the funds to contract for the aerial photography the U. S. Forest Service will assume responsibility for drawing and letting the contract. New pictures will be made on infrared film with a minus blue filter at a scale of 1:15,840. The new photography will enable Forest Survey men to take an intensive sample of the forest resource on aerial photos with less reliance on ground work and enable forest industries and communities to determine the timber resource tributary to various points.

First Inventory

The forest resources of the Upper Peninsula were first systematically inventoried by the Lake States Forest Experiment Station in the middle 1930s. A second survey, begun in 1946 was completed in 1956. The survey planned for 1964-65 will provide a third point on the trend line and furnish a solid estimate of future forest resources. The second survey trends were mixed, with some species declining in volume and other increasing. Now, after 15 years of increasing growth and declining cut, the future should be more clear and more encouraging, said Lynn Sandberg, chairman of UPCAP, and manager of the U. P. woodlands of Celotex Corp.

Employment in U. P. wood-using manufacturing industries averaged 8,300 workers in 1960, or 56 per cent of all manufacturing employment. Logging and wood manufacturing represent about 18 per cent of the total labor force "easily the most important economic sector of the Upper Peninsula."

The report of Lee James of Michigan State University for the Federal Government says "The long term outlook for major timber products (in the U. P.) is good. Particularly in pulpwood, which is the raw wood material of chief interest in the Upper Peninsula, the prospects for long continued industrial growth are exceptionally good." (From 1900 to 1955 pulpwood consumption increased almost 2,000 per cent.)

"However, forest industry, with its large and long-term investments, hesitates to expand or develop new plants without an adequate assurance of future raw material supply. Industries are constantly assessing the potentials of other areas throughout the United States that are in competition with the Upper Peninsula for new plant sites or expanded capacity at present sites. In order for the U. P. to compete, a forest survey is essential."

Cherry Blossoms Out In Capital

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

CHERRY BLOSSOMS: Helped along by warmer than usual weather, Washington's famed cherry blossoms are bursting into bloom.

National Park Service horticulturists predict the trees will be in full bloom Wednesday or Thursday—nice timing since the annual five-day Cherry Blossom Festival begins today. City officials say more than 700,000 persons will visit the capital next weekend.

BRIEFING: Editors and broadcasters in all states and Puerto Rico will receive invitations this week to a State Department foreign policy conference in Washington April 22-23. Speakers at the briefing will include President Kennedy and Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

The biggest item in the package passed by the House Monday calls for a 10 per cent increase in monthly rates of dependency and indemnity compensation for eligible parents and children of veterans who died of service-connected diseases. It is expected to cost $5 million the first year.

CULTURAL CENTER: The Ford Foundation has given the National Cultural Center a 5-million shot in the arm—a promise to donate that amount as soon as the balance of the $30-million building fund is raised.

INSURANCE STUDY: The Senate antitrust subcommittee begins hearings today on purchases of foreign insurance in the United States.

Hancock Lawyer, Kiiskila Dies

HANCOCK (AP) — Services for Finland-born John Kiiskila, one of the Upper Peninsula's best-known labor lawyers, will be held today.

Kiiskila, 82, died Monday at St. Joseph Hospital in Hancock after a long illness. He practiced law in Houghton County for nearly 60 years and in 1913, the year of strikes in the copper country, he handled more cases than all other lawyers in the county combined. He arrived in the United States at 19, and in rural Minnesota schools learned English. He earned a law degree from the University of Michigan in 1904.

He is survived by his wife and a sister.

Franklin School Children Will Be Bussed To Webster

Beginning today students of the Franklin School kindergarten, first, second and ungraded rooms are being transported by school bus to the Webster School.

Supt. Walter Bright said the buses will be at the Franklin School site to pick up the children at 8:45 a. m. and 1 p. m.

The buses will transport the students back to the Franklin School after the morning and afternoon sessions.

By removing the kindergarten, first, second and ungraded rooms to the Webster School the second floor of the old Franklin School has been vacated. The building has been found unsafe by the fire marshal in its present condition and a structural engineer has questioned whether it would be a good investment to attempt restoration.

The students in grades 3, 4, 5 and 6 will continue to attend classes on the first floor of the Franklin until about April 22, when they will be moved to rooms in the new Senior High School. The 81-year-old Franklin building will then be closed.

Prospects Good For Bay College

Applications now being received indicate a high standard of faculty talent will be available for the Bay de Noc community college, Escanaba. Kiwanians were told Monday by Richard Rinehart who began his duties April 1 as administrator of the new Delta County institution. Letters from persons seeking positions on the Bay College staff have been received from other states, in addition to Michigan, and one came from a foreign country, Rinehart said.

Although the college is aimed at giving educational opportunity to the youth of the community, there is no age maximum, the administrator said. At his former post in Lansing the community college had students ranging from 15 to 72 years of age, with about 100 over 50. Changing jobs has brought about the need for re-education of many workers and the home-town college offers a convenient opportunity for specialized training. There will also be a co-operative program for workers, encouraged by employers in business and industry. J. L. Heirman, president of the Bay College board, said that no problem was anticipated in securing a competent staff for the new college here because people seem attracted to the Upper Peninsula. He was one of a committee who made a tour of three junior colleges in the state at Petoskey, Traverse City and Lansing to check on operations prior to the approval of the Delta County college proposal. Heirman who announced the first scholarship grant for Bay College, said that there were prospects of more scholarship projects from local organizations.

The program Monday was arranged for the Kiwanis Club by Abe Herro.

Historical Drama

LANSING—Plans for development of an authentic historical drama at Mt. Pleasant have the full support of the Michigan Tourist Council, according to Rev. Louis C. Cappel, of Ramsay, council chairman. The project, produced by Central Michigan University, the Mt. Pleasant Chamber of Commerce and the City of Mt. Pleasant, will be presented at the university's Warner Auditorium, April 3-6. The drama, "Weep the Forest," will serve as a pilot program for a permanent outdoor pageant to attract and entertain visitors to the Mt. Pleasant area.

Does Planning Pay?

Federal financing of technical assistance for more Upper Peninsula Committee on Area Problems activity has been asked by UPCA from the Area Redevelopment Administration.

The current contract under which ARA is supplying technical assistance by Robert Nathan Associates to UPCA expires Dec. 31. It is costing $125,000 for 18 months.

To permit budget processing, UPCA asked at its Iron River meeting last Saturday that the contract be extended upon its expiration. The amount and the time were not fixed but left for negotiation between UPCA's executive committee and ARA. Nathan Associates said they would not ask extension, that it would have to be initiated by UPCA if desired, and that if it was, a 6 months extension would be minimum.

UPCAP is an agency created more than a year ago by the boards of supervisors of the Upper Peninsula to coordinate economic development in the Upper Peninsula. It got ARA to provide the Nathan firm's technical assistance and this element of high level professional economic counseling has been a new element in Upper Peninsula government and economics.

This technical assistance program came in under a cloud. There is a distrust in the area of economic planning, because what there was of it before wasn't very productive. What's wanted is jobs and not surveys, and surveys have become somewhat suspect as a means to jobs.

Nathan economists noted this in a report to UPCA stating: "There has developed throughout the Upper Peninsula the concept that the U. P. has been 'surveyed to death' and undoubtedly this idea may have some merit if taken within the context of such overall reports as the James or Ebasco reports. Undoubtedly broad economic analysis may no longer be an immediate necessity. On the other hand, we are convinced that there are serious gaps in data."

The economists cite the lack of data in the Lake Superior fisheries project they are developing. And there is such a lack of current data on the U. P. forest resource that UPCA has made the supply of this data its top objective. It will get an answer from ARA within a month on its request for $50,000 to accelerate aerial photographing of the Upper Peninsula forest resource — the western U. P. in 1963 and the eastern U. P. in 1964. The Forest Service would handle the work, but it lacks the funds to do it this year and next and it would not in its normal program collect all the data that is desirable for supply to wood industries on a county by county basis.

"This kind of knowledge must be obtained before any responsible businessman is going to put investment funds into enterprise," says the Nathan Associates.

This is only getting our house in order, but the Upper Peninsula, pleading "Don't bring me plans, when it's jobs that I need" still has been impressed enough with the start of planning to ask aid for its continuance.

Doubt, it is said, is the beginning of wisdom. UPCA's doubt that the U. P. knows enough about its resources to attract new industry is an example of both sense and courage. The people who may ridicule the paper work aren't offering alternatives that make jobs.

The Doctor Says:

How To Find Surgeons

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.

I have had many requests for the names of doctors in various parts of the country who perform the operation on the carotid sinus for the relief of asthma. If your family doctor cannot give you the name of such a doctor, you might contact your county or state medical society.

Q — Please tell me something about osteomyelitis. Is it due to a deficiency of calcium? Is it related to bone cancer? Is there a cure?

A — Although a deficiency of calcium will cause some bone disease, it does not cause osteomyelitis which is an infection of the bone marrow. It is not related to cancer. The germ responsible for over 80 per cent of all cases is the staphylococcus or ordinary pus germ. The antibiotics that cure most staphylococcus infections do not work well against this disease. This is because, even though a high concentration of the drug is built up in the blood, the antibiotic does not reach the infected bone in sufficient quantity to produce a cure. It may help, however, to control the infection. Rest in the hospital is usually required and after the acute stage has subsided, surgery is almost always necessary to bring about a cure.

Q — I am a 42-year-old housewife. Recently I began to get blackheads on my face. My skin is very oily. What do you suggest?

A — Blackheads are related to acne. They are due to some degree of overactivity of the oil glands of the skin. Since your skin is oily you should wash your face four or five times a day. The blackheads should not be squeezed because of the danger of infection. Even if they are evacuated under antiseptic conditions they tend to come back in the same place. A modified female sex hormone (16-epi-17-3-allyl ether) has recently been shown to cut down the oiliness of the skin. Insofar as it does this it may also reduce the production of blackheads.

Q — When I got sick about six weeks ago my doctor said I had walking pneumonia. Now he says that the inflammation in my lungs has all cleared up, but I have a bad cough and it's not getting any better. What should I do?

A — The term "walking pneumonia" is not commonly used but I assume that you had some congestion of the lungs without fever. A chronic cough may follow any kind of pneumonia. The commonest causes of such a cough are bronchitis (described in a recent column), pulmonary tuberculosis, daily exposure to smog or irritating fumes, lung cancer, and congestion of the lungs due to a leaky heart valve. For such a wide range of causes there can be no single type of treatment. Effective treatment must be based on discovery of the cause and then attempting to remove it. A treatment that would benefit one type of bronchitis may not aid another type.

Please send your questions and comments to Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

DUCK STAMPS

Except for printing and cost of sale, money from the sale of U.S. federal duck stamps goes for the acquisition and lease of waterfowl management areas throughout the nation.

Where Does One Begin and the Other End?

Edson In Washington

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON—(NEA) — It now develops that the Trade Expansion Act of 1961—hailed as the major achievement of the Kennedy administration in the last Congress—cannot begin to be effective before Jan. 1, 1965. It will take that long to negotiate major tariff cuts authorized by the act.

These negotiations will be conducted under the direction of Christian A. Herter, former Massachusetts governor and congressional aide, who is now U.S. trade secretary.

Named by President Kennedy as his special assistant on international trade, Herter has made one trip to Europe. Now he's preparing for two years of difficult bargaining.

There is wide suspicion of the new U. S. trade act in Europe and among the less developed countries as well.

What they seem to fear is that the United States is trying to capture their markets. They're reluctant to lower their own trade barriers against U. S. exports.

Two major political hurdles must be crossed.

First is the French veto of Britain's admission into the Common Market. This thwarts trade act authority given the President to negotiate 100 per cent tariff reductions on items in which 80 per cent of the trade is between the United States and the Common Market. This was put in the law in anticipation that Britain would be admitted.

The second hurdle is that Russia, its satellites and some of the neutral nations are advocating a United Nations world trade conference. What the Communist countries want, of course, is removal of strategic materials trade restrictions against them.

A U. N. Trade Conference might cause considerable difficulty if held while another round of rate reductions under the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade—GATT—was being negotiated.

The preliminaries to these negotiations are considered more important than the negotiations themselves. They'll determine what tariffs are to be cut and how the negotiations are to be conducted.

Trade experts from most of the 41 countries now in GATT have just begun meetings in Geneva to do some exploring. The idea is to negotiate on broad trade classifications rather than item by item, which is slow going.

The last round of tariff negotiations took 445 days. The present plan is to have the experts' preliminary recommendations ready for a trade ministers meeting to begin May 18. A final approval ministers meeting would then be held in January 1964.

Meanwhile, here in the United States, a list of imports on which tariff reductions might be made, along with the proposed new rates, is being prepared for issuance by Kennedy in July or August.

Public hearings then would be held on what to include in the GATT negotiating package. These probably will take the full six months allowed by the new trade act.

The final list of commodities on which tariff reductions are to be negotiated must then lie before Congress for 60 session days for its approval.

So the actual trade negotiations can't possibly begin before April 1964, or even later.

One of the principal American objectives is to insure that agricultural products are included in the coming negotiations, along with industrial products. In the last round of tariff negotiations, agricultural items were pushed to one side because the Common Market at that time did not have an agricultural policy.

Common Market agricultural policies are still cloudy, but the United States cannot get caught in this bind again.

Grain Program Signers Decline

By FRANK KNOX

Associated Press Farm Writer. UNDATED (AP)—Fewer Michigan growers signed up this year for the federal feed - grain program.

Final statistics compiled by the U. S. Department of Agriculture office in East Lansing showed that 33,170 growers with a base acreage of 970,000 acres agreed voluntarily to divert 515,868 of those from feed-grain production.

For diverting the land, they will receive an estimated $14.2 million. They also stand to be paid an estimated $3.2 million in price supports.

The combined total, $17.4 million, would be about $4.6 million less than was paid to state growers last year.

Weather Is Factor
In 1962, 39,897 growers with a base of 1,096,000 acres agreed to divert some 676,000 from feed-grain production and received some $22 million.

Jerome Gerzewski, in charge of the feed - grain program for the U.S.D.A. in Michigan, said although the department was hoping for a larger sign-up this year, certain factors kept the number down. He said the initial diversion payments were down this year, and although the price support payments were up, the lower initial payment may have discouraged some farmers.

Gerzewski said past participation by some farmers may have depleted their stocks of feed-grains so that this year they would need to plant more.

A third factor, he said, could have been weather - caused deficiencies in feed - grain production in the Thumb area, which needs the crops for dairy cattle feed rather than for cash.

Bureau Disagrees
Both Gerzewski and Dan Reed, a spokesman for Michigan's Farm Bureau, were inclined to discount an assumption that the decline in participation reflected growing disenchantment with federal crop programs.

The Farm Bureau has been conducting a hard - hitting campaign against the proposed 1964 federal wheat program, which, unlike the feed-grain program, is involuntary if a two-thirds majority agrees to the program.

Reed said although the Farm Bureau disagrees with certain aspects of the present feed - grain program, the organization made no attempt to influence farmer participation in the plan.

He said, however, that "we believe the Congress should wait and see what the people decide on the wheat referendum before they formulate the 1964 feed-grain program."

Reed said he believed Michigan would not muster the two - thirds majority on the wheat referendum May 21.

VOR Aid Readied At Menominee

MENOMINEE—Pilots of VOR equipped aircraft approaching the Menominee Airport, will be assisted by a new navigational aid commissioned Sunday by the Federal Aviation Agency.

Called a "VOR" (Terminal Very High Frequency Omni-directional Radio Range), the new facility is an electronic installation similar to the VORTAC installations throughout the country, which are the integral part of the nation's Victor Airways System.

In operation the unit transmits very high frequency radio signals which are picked up by associated equipment in the aircraft and translated to instrument readings indicating to the pilot his course heading and direction from the facility. From these readings the pilot can determine if he is on course, and, if not, in which direction he must steer to return to course.

Two Criminal Cases Delayed

Two criminal cases were continued to the June term of Delta County Circuit Court by Judge Bernard H. Davidson of Negaunee during the opening session of the April term here today.

They include a case in which Daniel Haley of Rte. 1, Rapid River is appealing a Justice Court conviction on a conservation game law violation. He was found guilty in Justice Court of transporting and possessing a shotgun with buckshot between the hours of sunset and sunrise in an area frequented by deer, during a closed season.

Judge Davidson also continued the case against Edwin C. Turnquist of Escanaba, who faces a morals charge, due to the illness of the attorney representing him.

At the request of his attorney, the case against John R. Brunette charge, was remanded to the Municipal Court for preliminary hearing to be held this week. When originally arraigned on the charge Brunette waived examination and was bound over to Circuit Court.

Dates for two additional cases, the sentencing of Robert Lee Shermerhorn of Walled Lake, Mich., who pleaded guilty at a previous term of Circuit Court to breaking and entering in the daytime, and an appeal from Justice Court by Joseph J. Waeghe Jr., will be set by the judge in the term.

Waeghe has requested a jury trial on his appeal case. He is appealing conviction of a conservation game law violation, the illegal taking of a bear. When previously arraigned he entered a plea of Nolo Contendere.

Bark River School Operating Millage Rejected By Voters

Voters of the Bark River-Harris School District turned down a proposal to levy 2.5 mills to finance operating costs in Tuesday's election.

The proposal was defeated by 25 votes out of 596 cast. The vote: 284 yes, 309 no, and 3 spoiled.

The schools in the Bark River-Harris District have been operating on a curtailed program this year, said Supt. Kenton Holm. Voter approval of the millage would have made it possible to restore some of the educational program.

The school district is now faced with a strong possibility of a deficit in its next year's budget, he said.

The board of education will meet tonight to officially canvass the vote and to discuss steps necessary to meet the financial problem.

Bay de Noc College Opens First Door To Public Today

Bay de Noc Community College opened its first door to the public today when its administrator took over a desk in the Escanaba Senior High School library to begin his new duties. The college will take over the high school building when it is vacated next week by the Escanaba Area School District for transfer of students to the new Escanaba Area High School.

The college board of trustees, meeting Monday night with Richard Rinehart, administrator, in the Delta County Building approved many actions to permit early publication of the college's catalogue for its first semester opening on Sept. 3.

The committee on lease arrangements reported general agreement with the Escanaba Area board of education on a lease of the old high school building for the college, except on the option to extend. The Area board favors a 15 year lease with option to negotiate for extension and or purchase at the end of the second 5 year period.

Trustee Robert Groos expressed disappointment that the lease maximum of 140. The maximum could rise to a possible 240 if persons in the area who finished high school a year or two ago enrolled.

The curriculum for the first semester will offer: English composition, speech, algebra, trigonometry, college algebra, sociology, economics, history, business, accounting, typing, shorthand, business machines, and science subjects.

Chemistry will not be offered in the first semester. Nursing instruction is contemplated for later.

The estimated cost of rehabilitation of the school for college use was fixed by Rinehart at $18,000, at the rate of $50 a fixture to replace inadequate incandescent lights with fluorescent lights, $7,000 total; new plumbing and heat control, $5,000, etc. Other capital outlay in the proposed $52,000 total (half to be paid by the state) includes $5,000 for books for the library, $8,000 for classroom desks or tables.

The proposed budget for minimum enrollment calls for $64,000 for instruction salaries (6 at $6,500 total $39,000), administrative, $12,000, etc.

Estimated income from state aid is $224 each for 110 students or $24,640; tuition and fees from 90 at $160 or $14,400, and a half mill levy on the county's $78 million plus valuation, for $38,460. The total estimated income is $79,000. Rinehart's tentative recommendation to the trustees for annual tuition in his budget is $160.

Rinehart suggested a school calendar which was adopted by the trustees calling for a planning conference on the college in Escanaba on June 28 to arrange transfer of credits with other colleges and universities and other relationships, dedication of the college July 5, and faculty employment for planning on Aug. 1. Fall semester will start Sept. 3 and spring semester Feb. 3.

Co-op student Donna Bingham of the Chamber of Commerce staff wears a topper in sympathy. "We'll have to send some of them back," said Cloutier "or it might take us the next 100 years to get rid of all of them." ## Democrats Win For High Court

DETROIT (AP) — Incumbent Justice Eugene Black and former Justice Paul Adams, both non-partisan nominees of the Democratic Party, won re-election Monday to the Michigan Supreme Court.

The record turnout of Michigan voters in a spring election gave Black and Adams margins of 150,000 to 200,000 over their two Republican-backed opponents, Donald Holbrook and Richard Smith.

The outcome restored to the High Court the 5-3 margin held by Democratic - nominated justices before Adams was defeated last November by Michael O'Hara, of Menominee.

Black, 60, a Port Huron resident who once served as a Republican attorney general and is regarded as a political maverick for his blasts at both parties, won election to a second six-year term.

The 54-year-old Adams, a former Democratic attorney general, University of Michigan regent and one-time mayor of Sault Ste. Marie, was elected to fill the vacancy created by the impending retirement of Chief Justice Leland Carr.

Unofficial returns from 4,774 of the state's 5,209 precincts gave Black 697,796 votes and Adams 629,935 to Smith's 468,870 and Holbrook's 460,481.

Holbrook, 54, is a circuit judge in Clare County. Smith, 40, is a circuit judge in Bay county—a post to which he was appointed six years ago by former Gov. G. Mennen Williams—and a former Republican member of the legislature.

Webster School Welcomes Students From Franklin

First transfer students from the Franklin School, which is being vacated because of its age and unsafe fire condition, were welcomed today at the Webster School.

Signs had been posted reading "Welcome to Webster". "Happy to have you sharing the building with us," and "If you can't locate anything you want just ask anyone in the building."

Second floor of the 81-year-old Franklin School is now emptied of students and those on the first floor will be moved to the new Senior High building about April 22.

Parents of children in the Franklin School asked the school board to close the building after reports on the condition of the building were received from the state fire marshal and a structural engineer.

Council Job Won By Van Antwerp

DETROIT (AP) — Philip J. Van Antwerp won election to Detroit's Common Council with a lopsided victory Monday over his Negro challenger, Jackie Vaughn III.

Final returns gave Van Antwerp 234,394 votes and Vaughan, 92,158. Van Antwerp will fill the vacancy created by the death last year of his second cousin, Councilman Eugene I. Van Antwerp. The term runs through Jan. 3, 1966.

Vaughn, 32, executive secretary of the Michigan State Athletic Commission, sought to become the second Negro on the nine-member council. Councilman William T. Patrick, a Negro, was elected in 1957 and re-elected in 1961 to a four-year term.

Van Antwerp, 51, a retired police inspector, ran strong in the predominantly white 21st and 22nd wards. Vaughn polled a heavy vote in the city's Negro precincts.

Detroit voters also decided three separate races for Common Pleas judgeships.

Judge David C. Vokes won a fourth six-year term, defeating C. Michael Kimber, an attorney.

Judge Charles S. Farmer won a term that expires Dec. 31, 1967, with a victory over Lee C. McManus, a former assistant Wayne County prosecutor.

Judge Joseph J. Pernick and Judge George D. Kent, both recent appointees to the Common Pleas bench, beat off a challenge from Anthony Szymanski, Thomas R. Sullivan trailed Szymanski in the bid for one of the two terms which run to Dec. 31, 1965.

Blonde Linked To Robbery Gang

PONTIAC (AP) — Mrs. Dorothy Krugman, a 26-year-old blonde, was accused Monday of working with Oakland County's "silk stocking" gang in a series of 25 to 30 robberies in the Detroit area.

State Police said the gang also looted the home of Mrs. Krugman's wealthy father, industrialist Robert G. Ligon, in suburban Waterford Township.

Mrs. Krugman, whose home is in Warren, will be arraigned on an armed robbery charge in Oakland County Circuit Court April 9. Ligon told State Police his fashionable home was looted Jan. 17 of guns, appliances, television sets and jewelry worth $10,000.

State Police Trooper George Plummer named two Warren men as members of the ring—Marvin Pallister, 25, and Gerard Flieger, 19.

Plummer said the ring's loot in the last eight months amounted to tens of thousands of dollars in cash and merchandise. He said they wore silk stockings as masks.

Police said a fourth member of the ring, Jerome C. Parmentier, 31, of Warren, has been sentenced to 3 to 5 years in Southern Michigan Prison for carrying a concealed weapon.

Signatures Pushed Over Top In Tax Protest At Detroit

DETROIT (AP)—The Vigilance Tax Committee collected 30,000 signatures at Detroit area polling places Monday, finally reaching its goal for petitions to oppose city income taxes on non-residents.

The committee, a group of Detroit suburban officials, was short on the required 225,000 signatures last December which would have forced legislative action.

Collections Monday put the group over the top with a total of 230,000, said Mayor George W. Kuhn of Berkeley, committee chairman. Kuhn expressed conviction that all the new 30,000 signatures were valid since all signers were registered voters.

Russians Launch Research Station Toward The Moon

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union today fired a 1,350-pound interplanetary research station toward the moon, Moscow radio reported.

The radio said the unmanned space vehicle is scheduled to reach the moon in 3 1/2 days.

Centennial Party Seeks Old Music

Austin Stromberg, heading the committee planning the Escanaba Night centennial dinner at the Swedish Engineers Society in Chicago Saturday has asked John Lemmer to supply the music for "The Orange and the Black," so ex-Escanabans can sing old Escanaba High School's song. If anyone having the music for the Princeton University song will get to the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce it will be forwarded to Stromberg.

"The high school uses the Fight Song more now," said Lemmer, "but we'd better not tell the old grads." Stromberg also asked an EHS banner and the Chamber has supplied one. The Chicago celebration by ex-Escanabans will be the first event of Escanaba's Centennial program, which reaches climax in July 4th week.

Manistique Votes 2 Mills Building Fund For School

Voters gave a three to one majority to a proposition to levy two mills for 5 years for a sinking fund which will replace the Lakeside Elementary School.

Two propositions were submitted to voters. On the first, to create the sinking fund, the vote was 825 yes and 311 no.

The proposal for the millage was 975 yes and 381 no.

Plans call for using $110,000 now in the 3.5 mill construction fund and $100,000 to be raised with the new millage for the new school. The 3.5 mill levy expired in 1961 after 10 years.

The site will be selected after completion of planning studies by Villican Lehman Associates, planning consultants engaged by the city and school district.

The victory of the issues at the polls was the first for a special levy in several years. Voted down in February of this year was a proposal for a new water tower and last year Schoolcraft County voters rejected both an armory and a medical care facility.

In Mueller Township Monday a proposal to levy one mill for two years for hot lunch carried 107 to 25.

In township balloting incumbent supervisors Leonard Walters of Manistique Township, Lindley Frenette of Doyle Township and Floyd Sample of Thompson Township were re-elected and in an upset William Popour, veteran 1st Ward Township supervisor, was defeated 118 to 132 by Joel Carley, of Cooks.

In Hiawatha Township where Supervisor Russel Tennant was not a candidate for re-election, the supervisor post was won by Agner Dehlin, a veteran township officer. He won 180 to 146 over Leo Sikarskie.

On the new constitution city voters favored the document, 696 to 650, with only the first precinct failing to give a majority. In the townships voters were heavily against the new constitution, 903 no to 519 yes.

On the state ticket there were small majorities for the Democratic nominees. The top vote getter in Schoolcraft County voting was Lynn Bartlett, superintendent of public instruction who got 1,416 to 1,159 for Raymond N. Hatch, Republican.

Paul Adams, Democrat was favored for the Supreme Court, 1,231 and Just Eugene Black, 1,015, over the Republicans, Donald Holbrook 892 and Richard Smith, 811.

Ballot Victory Boosts Prestige Of Gov. Romney

generally what a mess this executive structure is," he told reporters. "After all, there are 120 to 125 agencies that I'm supposed to keep in touch with personally."

"I can't keep in touch with them. It's crazy, it's idiotic, I don't know how to express it strongly enough."

Under the new constitution, the state agencies will be concentrated into 20 major departments with lines of authority more sharply drawn.

Other changes would lengthen the term of the governorship from two years to four; reapportion the Senate on a formula based 80 per cent on population and 20 per cent on area; establish a court of appeals under the Supreme Court; eliminate the office of justice of the peace and bar a graduated income tax.

THREE FOR GOP

DETROIT (AP) — One Republican led most of the way and two others apparently won on late returns today as the GOP captured one new seat on each of the governing boards of Michigan's three largest state universities.

Stephen Nisbet of Fremont, former president of the Constitutional Convention, ousted Democrat Jan Vanderploeg of North Muskegon, from a post on the Michigan State University Board of Trustees. Nisbet led a four-man race for two seats by 10,000 votes after building an early margin Monday night.

William Cudlip, a former GOP delegate to the Constitutional Convention, gained momentum in late reporting precincts to make up a 7,000-vote deficit and go ahead by 2,000 over incumbent Democrat Donald Thurber of Detroit on the University of Michigan Board of Regents.

Dr. Alfred Whittaker, a Detroit surgeon, was assured of victory over Democrat Michael Ference Jr. of Dearborn, in the race for the latter's seat on the Wayne State University Board of Governors. Whittaker held a 7,000 vote margin with 5,129 of the state's 5,209 precincts reported.

The election of the three Republicans cut the Democratic margin on each of the Michigan State and Wayne State boards to 4-2, and gave the U-M governing body a new political alignment of five Democrats and three Republicans.

Thurber and Eugene Power of Ann Arbor earlier had seemed certain of re-election over Cudlip and Ink White, St. Johns newspaper publisher.

Nab The Peddler

Dear Ann Landers: My husband is a junior in college. Last semester he was introduced to some "stay awake pills." The kids call them Bernies. From Bennies he went to other stuff.

At first he took pills only when he had to stay up and cram for finals. Then he began to take them when he needed a lift. It wasn't long before he was taking pills just to keep going.

His disposition has changed from a sweet, likeable guy to a belligerent bully. He argues with everybody. Hardly a civil word has passed between us in months. His grades have slipped badly and he has lost confidence in himself.

I'm worried about his health. He has lost a lot of weight and looks terrible. The man who started him on the pills provided them free at first. Now they cost $14 a dozen.

I am a nervous wreck. Please tell me what to do.—MRS. HOOK-ED

Dear Mrs.: Your husband should be in the hands of a competent physician—and soon. And the man who is peddling the junk should be reported to the police. I hope you have the courage to turn in the scoundrel and spare other young people the agony you are now suffering.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a mother who does not agree with your position on going steady.

My daughter is 13 years old and in the seventh grade. She is going steady with a very nice boy of 14 and I am delighted. Last year when she didn't have a steady boy friend she was a terribly unhappy girl. She was always worried to death she wouldn't be invited to this party or to that ball game. It was a sad sight to see this child teary-eyed and fretting—waiting for the telephone to ring.

Going steady means nothing more to a seventh grader than having somebody to count on. It's what the youngsters call "social security."

Please don't be so hard on these 13-year-olds, Ann. Things are different than when you and I were teenagers. Today it's a serious thing for a girl to be dateless.—R. D.

Dear R. D.: And who made it a "serious thing" for a 13-year-old to be dateless? Mothers like you.

The divorce rate is going through the roof and largely because of half-baked, premature marriages. When mothers prime their 12-year-old daughters to be man-traps, the kids become so jaded and bored at 17 there is nothing left to do but get married. At 19 there's no place to go but to the divorce court.

Please keep my address handy, mother. I have a sneaking suspicion you'll be writing again.

Dear Ann Landers: You have expressed your views about the single girl who becomes involved with the married man and you've discussed the eternal triangular affairs among married couples. Yet you've never explained why the female always pays for the involvement while the man goes free.

When a woman gets caught up in an illicit love affair she often loses her home, her job, her friends, her place in respectable society and yes, sometimes even her health. The man continues on his merry way with nary a scar—looking for his next pigeon.

What is the secret? How can a woman immunize herself against a tattered and torn heart the way men do?

Please don't dodge behind the obvious line that a woman can protect herself by not becoming involved in the first place. Women will continue to become involved regardless of the consequences. What's your solution?—D. PRESSED

Dear D.: Being a mere columnist and not a magician, I have no cure-all. As the poet has said—"to a woman love is all. To man 'tis a thing apart."

Foolish women will continue to become involved. And men will continue to take things apart. You can count on it, Babe.

Planning a wedding? Leave nothing to chance. ANN LANDERS' newest booklet, "The Bride's Guide," has all the answers (from announcing the engagement to "who pays for what"). To receive your copy, write to Ann Landers, in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 35 cents in coin.

Hot Fivesome Opens Golf Season At Escanaba Club

Not only early birds but off to a fast golfing start this spring were the fivesome of George Douglas, Jim Fitzharris, John Fawcett, Bob Stumm and Fran Boyce.

Out for the first time Sunday afternoon at the Escanaba Golf Club, the quintuplets fashioned three birdies and two pars on the par-three third hole. How about that?

All hit the green off the tee except Fawcett who chipped up for a one-putt par. Douglas two-putted for his par. Boyce, 40 feet away, said, "Well, I might as well get my first birdie of the year!" And he did. Stumm said, "Me, too!" from 30 feet away and dropped his putt. Whereupon, Fitzharris, facing a 15-footer, decided this was no time to stop and dropped his teeset.

All of which constitutes fair warning to other Escanaba Golf clubbers.

Bowling Notes

Snider Sold To Mets

Flatbush Regains King Of Old Days

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Duke Snider, the king of Flatbush, is headed back to the city that gave him the royal treatment—both cheers and boos—joining seven other former Dodger teammates on the New York Mets.

His waist a little wider and his hair a little whiter, the 36-year-old slugger who spent 11 years in a Brooklyn uniform and 16 years as a Dodger, officially was sold to the Mets Monday night for a price in the $30,000-40,000 neighborhood.

The left-handed swinging outfielder has been the subject of a cloak-and-dagger transaction that has been rumored for weeks. The deal finally was confirmed by Mets President George Weiss while Snider was en route to the West Coast.

In Albuquerque, Snider stepped off a plane, denied reports he had asked to be traded so he could play regularly, but noted that "it'll be interesting playing for Casey Stengel (Mets manager)." Snider said he was sad, but had expected "to feel a lot worse."

Snider, whose lifetime National League achievements include a

.300 batting average, 1,995 hits, 1,271 runs batted in and 389 homers, plans to spend a few days with his family in Fallbrook, Calif., before joining the Mets. He said his wife and four children would probably come to New York in May.

An outspoken critic of baseball's boo-birds, Snider was a hero to the Ebbsies Field crowds that jammed into the now dismantled park to watch the Dodger stars of the 1950s—Jackie Robinson, Roy Campanella, PeeWee Reese, Carl Furillo and Gil Hodges, the latter now also with the Mets.

To the cheers, Snider would doff his cap. To the boos, Snider would respond with a verbal attack. The fans always came back to applaud.

TIE ON RECORD

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—The University of Kentucky's basketball record includes a tie game, 21-21 in 1918 against Kentucky Wesleyan College. The tie score resulted from a scorer's error that wasn't detected until after the teams had left town. The game was rescheduled, but never replayed.

Yanks May Live To Regret What They Did Monday

By JERRY GREEN

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—The Yankees may live to regret what they did to the Tigers Monday. They beat Detroit 3-2 in an exhibition game but it was a costly victory. Roger Maris made a game-saving, diving catch in right field that knocked him out of the lineup indefinitely.

The slugging rightfielder made a spectacular, tumbling catch of a sinking line drive by Dick McAuliffe and suffered "a severe pull to the hamstring muscle in his left leg."

He got up, threw the ball to second base to complete a double play, and went down again. He prevented two Tiger runs, but put himself out of exhibition competition and may not see action until after the season opener.

The injury to Maris, the Yanks' No. 2 slugger, is the fourth to hit New York in pre-season play.

Tony Kubek is out with a mysterious swelling under his right arm. Tom Tresh with shin splits and Whitey Ford with an injured arm.

Maris and Joe Pepitone, the Yankees' new first baseman, tagged Jim Bunning for two home runs. It was Pepitone's third homer in two days and his eighth of the spring. Bunning, the probable opening day pitcher against the Chicago White Sox, gave up all three runs in six innings.

Dick Egan pitched two perfect innings, and Terry Fox faced three batters in the ninth.

Meanwhile, Frank Lary, Detroit's old-time Yankee-killer, seemed to sharpen up just because the Yanks were in town.

He barreled through eight innings of pitching Monday—the longest stint of his comeback bid. And afterward Manager Bob Scheffing was grinning.

The only regret was that Lary's impressive performance was turned in against Tiger reserves and not against the Yankees.

"He looked very good," Scheffing said. "It was very encouraging to me. He had real good stuff. His shoulder didn't hurt and he was strong in the last six innings."

Bill Stafford did a brilliant job of bottling up the Tigers until the seventh, his final inning. But he was rescued by Maris' fateful catch in the fourth.

Gus Triandos' single drove in the first Tiger run. The Tigers scored another run in the eighth on Rocky Colavito's sacrifice fly off reliever Hal Reniff.

The Tigers play the Kansas City Athletics today at Bradenton before winding up their Florida stay with games here Wednesday and Thursday.

Cincinnati Reds' infielder Chico Ruiz, left, brandishes the ball as he challenges a safe call of umpire Bill Kinnaman on an attempted tag of Hector Martinez, back-ground, of the Kansas City Athletics. The arbiter—who else?—won the argument in the third inning of an exhibition game at Al Lang Field in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Friend Has Range But Law Sent To Pirate Farm Camp

By The Associated Press

Bob Friend has the range from 60 feet, but the 250-foot experiment has failed Vern Law, and today the pitching partners who brought Pittsburgh a world championship in 1960 were worlds apart.

Friend pitched a four-hitter over the nine-inning route Monday as the Pirates defeated Minnesota 3-0 in an exhibition at Orlando, clinching the opening day pitching assignment only hours after Law learned he was leaving the team for awhile.

Law's failure to overcome his shoulder ailment—and the announcement that he would be sent to the club's minor league camp to try and regain the form that made him a 20-game winner in 1960—came on a day filled with events of more than passing interest.

Maris Injures Leg

Roger Maris, the New York Yankees' 61-homer hitter of 1961, pulled a hamstring muscle in his left leg while making a diving catch during a 3-2 victory over Detroit at Lakeland, and likely will miss the world champions' season opener a week from today.

Duke Snider, veteran Dodger outfielder, was sold by Los Angeles to the New York Mets. The official confirmation of the much-discussed transaction was made by the Mets, who did not play Monday. The Dodgers were beaten 6-1 by Baltimore at Vero Beach.

Elsewhere, the Chicago Cubs belted Boston 13-3 at San Bernardino, San Francisco edged Cleveland 4-3 at Santa Barbara and the Los Angeles Angels whipped Houston 5-1 in California games. In other Florida action, Washington defeated Milwaukee 4-2 in 10 innings at West Palm Beach. Philadelphia edged St. Louis 5-4 at St. Petersburg and Cincinnati downed Kansas City 4-1 at Bradenton.

Law, a 33-year-old right-hander who posted a 20-9 record in 1960, then followed with 3-4 and 10-7 marks, had been pitching at distances up to 250 feet in an effort to strengthen his arm muscles. The plan failed. Law has pitched in only one exhibition, giving up four runs in three innings.

Law will be sent to Daytona Beach, and may stay until the last minor league club leaves about April 20.

Friend, meanwhile, was mid-season sharp, allowing the Twins only four singles. The Pirates also got only four hits—but Don Clendenon's two-run homer in the sixth wrapped it up.

Maris homered for the Yankees in the top of the fourth, then in the bottom of the inning made a spectacular catch of a Dick McAuliffe liner and wound up on the injury list. Joe Pepton continued to sizzle for the Yanks, hitting his third homer in two games and eighth of the spring.

Roberts Goes Nine

Robin Roberts went nine for the Orioles, holding the Dodgers to six hits while Brooks Robinson paced in 11-hit attack with a two-run homer and single.

Lou Brock collected a single, two doubles and a triple while Ron Santo and Ernie Banks hit consecutive homers as the Cubs walked the Red Sox. Tom Haller's two-run homer proved decisive for the Giants as Juan Marichal pitched two-hit ball in his six-inning sting against the Indians.

Don Lee and Julio Navarro combined for a four-hitter as the Angels beat the Colts. Jim King's two-run 10th inning triple gave the Senators their victory over the Braves, the Phillies used a triple by Tony Taylor and a wild pitch in the eighth to beat the Cards. Coleman each stroked three hits in the Reds triumph over the A's.

Spar's Dartball Team Is Champion

Spar's captured the Men's Taver's Dartball League second half tournament championship Monday night by defeating Eddy's in a best-of-three series.

Eddy's won the first game 61-7 and Spar's evened the match with an 8-7 victory in 10 innings. Spar's won the deciding game by a 9-1 margin.

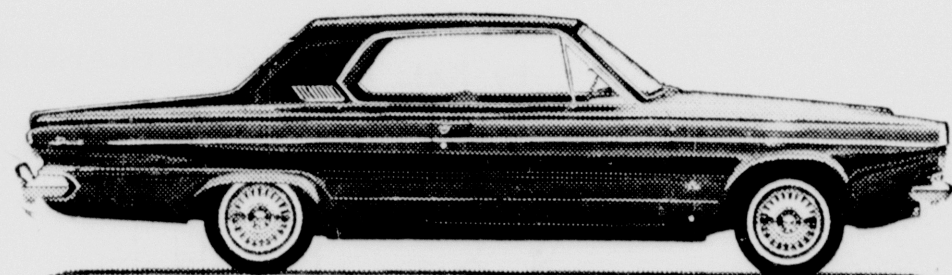

Spar's reached the finals with victories over West Side and Arcadia. Eddy's eliminated Triangle and Bay de Noc teams for the right to face Spar's in the finals.
